Hearing Aids, Auditory Prostheses

Orientation to hearing loss for educational personnel. J. L. Fitch. October, 252-259.

Psychoacoustics

The effects of open-space versus traditional, self-contained classrooms on the auditory selective attending skills of elementary school children. D. L. Barnett, A. C. Nichols, & D. G. Gould. July, 138-143.

Language

Assessment

A comparison of four informal methods of language evaluation. M. Fujiki & M. L. Willbrand. January, 42-52.
An examination of language samples obtained under three experimental conditions. L. D. Stalnaker & N. A. Creaghead. April, 121-127.
An investigation of the effectiveness of three language elicitation procedures on Head Start children. C. P. Atkins & L. R. Cartwright. January, 33-36.
Comparison of rapid naming abilities in language-learning-disabled and academically achieving eight-year-olds. E. H. Wiig, E. M. Semel, & L. A. Nystrom. January, 11-23.
In retrospect: A fifteen-year follow-up report of speech-language-disordered children. January, 24-32.
Iowa's Severity Rating Scales for Communication Disabilities. K. D. Barker, R. A. Baldes, P. H. Jenkinson, K. D. Wilson, & J. J. Freilinger. July, 156-162.
Language processes and linguistic levels: A matrix. C. S. Wing. January, 2-10.
Narratives: A new look at communication problems in older language-disordered children. J. R. Johnston. July, 144-155.
The Elicited Language Analysis Procedure: A method for scoring sentence imitation tasks. L. J. Mattes. January, 37-41.
Word-finding substitutions in children with learning disabilities. D. J. German. October, 223-230.

Language Disabilities in Children

A comparison of four informal methods of language evaluation. M. Fujiki & M. L. Willbrand. January, 42-52.
An examination of language samples obtained under three experimental conditions. L. D. Stalnaker & N. A. Creaghead. April, 121-127.
Comparison of rapid naming abilities in language-learning-disabled and academically achieving eight-year-olds. E. J. Wiig, E. M. Semel, & L. A. Nystrom. January, 11-23.
Facilitating functional requesting in pragmatically impaired children. L. B. Olswang, E. Kriegsmann, & A. Mastergeorge. October, 202-222.

Maximum 5honeme duration of /s/ and /z/ by children with vocal nodules. M. P. Rastatter & M. Hyman. July, 197-199.
Misarticulated vowels: A case study. P. M. Hargrove. April, 86-95.
The Elicited Language Analysis Procedure: A method for scoring sentence imitation tasks. L. J. Mattes. January, 37-41.

SPEECH OR VOICE PRODUCTION

Maximum phoneme duration of /s/ and /z/ by children with vocal nodules. M. P. Rastatter & M. Hyman. July, 197-199.

SPEECH PERCEPTION, AUDITORY PROCESSING

The effects of open-space versus traditional, self-contained classrooms on the auditory selective attending skills of elementary school children. D. L. Barnett, A. C. Nichols, & D. G. Gould. July, 138-143.

STUTTERING, OTHER FLUENCY DISORDERS

Educators' perceptions of the effects of communication disorders upon educational performance. C. W. Bennett & C. M. Runyan. October, 260-263.

TREATMENT

A treatment program for disordered phonology: Phonetic and linguistic considerations. C. Dunn & C. Barron. April, 100-109.
Contextual facilitation of correct sound production. R. D. Kent. April, 66-76.
Educator's perceptions of the effects of communication disorders upon educational performance. C. W. Bennett & C. M. Runyan. October, 260-263.
Management of speech and language impairment in a case of Prader-Willi syndrome. N. K. Edmonston. October, 241-245.

VOICE DISORDERS, LARYNGEAL DISABILITIES

Iowa's Severity Rating Scales for Communication Disabilities. K. D. Barker, R. A. Baldes, P. H. Jenkinson, K. D. Wilson, & J. J. Freilinger. July, 156-162.

Professional and General Scientific Issues

CLINICAL SUPERVISION

Competency-based objectives for the student teaching experience. A. R. Johnson, M. R. Prudhomme, & E. A. Rogero. July, 187-196.

EDUCATION, CONTINUING EDUCATION

Orientation to hearing loss for educational personnel. J. L. Fitch. October, 252-259.
